

COMPLETE SKILLS TRAINING GROUP INFORMATION PAGE

The Complete Skills Training Group is ideal for athletes who want to develop their skills without having the added pressure of competing in track meets. Athletes who want to try the workouts before they decide to commit fully to the Elementary or High School teams should select this program. There is only a three month commitment needed for this program and the $175 price tag makes this program a good choice if the athlete is not yet fully committed to training or competing.

Flying Angels has training groups for Elementary children (6-14 years old), High School youth (15-19 years old), and adults (20 years and older).
