

FLYING ANGELS DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE TEAM INFORMATION PAGE

The Flying Angels Development League Team is ideal for beginner track & field athletes who want to have fun while developing their track & field skills. Athletes in this program train 2-3 days per week alongside the Rep Team athletes and compete in Flying Angels Development League track meets.

The Flying Angels Development League Team is divided into two training groups. The Elementary Group consists of athletes who are in grade 1-8 and the High School Group has athletes in grade 9-12.

Flying Angels has training group locations throughout the GTA. More locations are added during the summer months (June to August) for the Elementary Development Team athletes. See the Locations page on the website to see the training locations, days, and times.
